H. L. MINOR & DANIEL R. BROWN SCHOLARSHIP 2017 - 2018

VISION

To provide financial support to individuals pursuing a career in the profession of Funeral Service

HISTORY/PURPOSE

The H .L Minor & Daniel R. Brown Scholarship was established in 1977 in honor of two prominent funeral directors in the Commonwealth of Virginia, H. L. Minor of Richmond and Daniel R. Brown of Lawrenceville. The vision of these pioneers was to maintain a commitment to excellence in the funeral profession by assisting students in their education. This program will provide scholarships to qualified students who are pursuing a career in the funeral profession. The recipient must be currently enrolled in an accredited mortuary schools with plans to be licensed in the Commonwealth of Virginia. A formal recognition will conducted at the Virginia Morticians' Association Annual State Convention. The selection will be based on the applicant's essay, letters of recommendation, the grades of funeral service classes, and the committee's evaluation. The decision of the Scholarship Committee will be forwarded to the Virginia Morticians' Association Board of Directors for final approval at the designated board meeting. The committee reserves the right not to recommend any, if there are no applicants or if the applicants do not meet the set forth criteria of the committee.
